

1 (From left) Kara Hahn, Paul Ruchames, Janet Walerstein, Luis Vazquez, Michele Lauer-Bader and Elizabeth Custodio participated in the Child Care Council of Suffolk's largest ever Champions of Children Luncheon.

2 The Long Island African American Chamber of Commerce and Queens Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity collaborated on a Minority/Woman-Owned Business Enterprise workshop. (From left, front row) Byron Johnson, Charlene Thompson, Winnie Benjamin, Erna Blackman, Daniel Brown; (back row) Clyde Vanel, Jamaal Solomon, J. Marcus Poon and Garland Boyd.

3 (From left) Dr. Bruce Stillman, Lesley Stahl and honorees Alan Alda and Dr. P. Roy Vagelos took part in the Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory's Double Helix Medals Gala.

4 The Dotty's House Luncheon raised a record $15,000 to support Dotty's House, an SCO Family of Services shelter. (From left) Carin Perez, Barbara Oakley, Gale Campisi, Lisa Scro and Jill Mazza.

5 (From left) Roberta Lea, Phyllis Hill Slater and Henry Sikorksi cut the ribbon on the Barbara Legname Room in the Greenley Library at Farmingdale State College.

6 Rebuilding Together Long Island, a nonprofit organization, made a presentation before the Suffolk County Seniors and Consumer Protection Committee. (From left) Sarah Anker, Frank Zambanini, Barbara Nielsen and Al Krupski.

7 Veterans of the Rocky Point VFW Post 6249 teamed up with Landmark Properties and Four Seasons Sunrooms and Windows to build a home for U.S. Army Combat Medic Glenn Cote and his family. (From left) Joe Cognitore, Angus Morison, Brad Beard and Brian Fabian.

8 Attending the Nassau Suffolk Water Commissioners' Association's 35th Anniversary Celebration Party were (from left) John Hirt, Pasquale Eliseo, Raymond Averna, Ralph Pugliese, Robert McEvoy, Howard Abbondandolo and Gary Brosnan.