ANTHONY ESERNIO

MARKET PRESIDENT, SUBURBAN NEW YORK
TD BANK

TD Bank has a new Long Island leader. Anthony Esernio has moved up to market president of suburban New York, which includes Long Island, Westchester and the Lower Hudson Valley. The executive is based in TD Bank's Melville office and is charged with oversight for the bank's regional commercial loan portfolio.

Esernio will focus both on supporting existing partnerships and developing new ones as TD Bank looks to expand its reach and impact in the area.

The 32-year industry veteran knows both the region and the bank well. He joined TD Bank in 2002 and, in his most recent role, served as regional vice president for Nassau, managing both regional commercial and small business lending in coordination with the bank's retail locations on Long Island. TD Bank credits Esernio with playing a critical role in its organic growth and expansion throughout the Island.

Prior to joining TD, Esernio held a variety of roles for EAB and Chase.

He holds a Master of Business Administration from Adelphi University and serves as a board member of the Long Island Housing Partnership and the Ronald McDonald House of Long Island.
