

Center for Family Life 13th Annual Sister Mary Geraldine Symposium

Sanctuary Families: Using Popular Education as a Social Justice Tool

RSVP Now! Email us here.

Come join us on March 6 for a discussion on the use of popular education as a tool for social action and advocacy.

Wednesday
March 6, 2019
4:00–6:00 PM

Recess
46 Washington Avenue
Brooklyn

Featuring:

Lizania Cruz's exhibition $200 From... To... -With Love, a participatory art project.

The preview of a new conversation guide for immigrant families facing deportation.

A panel discussion with representatives from the non-profit sector and the arts.

Panelists:

Zenayda Bonilla
Peer Advocate
Sanctuary Families Project

Lizania Cruz
Designer and Artist

Oscar Nuñez
Program Manager
Center for Urban Pedagogy

Learn more at cflsp.org To RSVP, please contact Siobhan O'Flaherty at soflaherty@sco.org or 718-438-9500 ext 207. Suggested donation: $10.